HOTSHOTS

SEND YOUR HOTSHOTS TO TMERO@MIDWEEK.COM

▲ Furniture Store Supports Nonprofit

HomeWorld raised more than $6,300 for HUGS (Help, Understanding & Group Support) through its annual Stressless Event campaign. Customers who donated $50 or more to HUGS received up to $400 off select Stressless brand furniture. HUGS has been the beneficiary of HomeWorld's charity campaign for more than six years. Pictured are HUGS dad Keola Higa (center) with HomeWorld Maui staff members (from left) Marci Savage, Toni Stanich, Lynde Lawson, Christopher Pacheco, Bridget Ferguson and Arlene Richardson.

PHOTO COURTESY HOMEWORLD

▲ Restaurant Chain Aids Youth

Boys & Girls Club of Hawai'i was awarded a $15,000 grant from The Jack in the Box Foundation, with an additional $15,000 matched by PARS Group LLC, the ownership group for Jack in the Box Hawai'i. Pictured (from left) are Nick Domingo, director of operations, Jack in the Box Hawai'i; Amanda Panyarat, special events manager, Boys & Girls Club of Hawai'i; and Glenn Dela-Cruz, director of marketing, Jack in the Box Hawai'i.

hcflooringstone.com

