◀ Installation Banquet Introduces New Leaders

▲ Credit Union Supplies Keiki For New School Year

Honolulu Federal Credit Union recently held its first school supply drive for Help, Understanding and Group Support (HUGS). All HOCU branches collected school supplies donated by its members. Pictured (from left) are Cory D'Orazio, marketing and sales manager, HOCU; Maggie Ritchy, director of programs, HUGS; and Alan Castillo, community resource development coordinator, HUGS.
